Dear Phill:

I appreciate your moughtfulness in seking me to attend your next Conference for Corporation Executives on 9 and 10 February.

Because of my heavy work schedule and the demands placed upon me by this Congress, it looks like I will be unable to join you next month. However, my people here tell me that the necessary arrangements are being made to have the Agency represented on this particular occasion.

Thank you very much.

incerely,

Allen W. Dilles Director
